Deborah-

There is a chance our radio coverage will switch over to NPR if Ariel Sharon passes away. We will continue to tape for TV, however there may be fewer calls into the show. One more thing, our radio fundraising is pressing us for future scheduling of the show. The date in question is February 3. Right now I only have us booked through January with holds for future dates. Do you have a list for us to work with at this time?
Thanks so much,
Carla

Thanks again,

Hi Deborah-

Is your goal to have 30 shows for the year? Right now we are at 33. Gloria has given me 2 more dates (4/7 and 4/28) she'll be on vacation in addition to 2/24. If your goal is to have 30 shows, not 33- we could count all of her vacation days as NO TAPES. Otherwise, we can keep all 33 and have guest hosts. Which is your preference?
Thank you,
Carla

Hi Deborah-
I wanted to clear the schedule by you before updating our scheduler at KPBS.
I've attached the updated list for shows to be taped for TV. We've cut Gloria's vacation days from the schedule which leaves us with the usual 30 shows for the calendar year. Take note that the 2/24 show is now a "no tape" as well as April 7 and April 28.
Please let me know if these changes work for you.

When I asked Hank to review the schedule because I sensed that an every-other-week TV schedule would feature one group of editors over the other, I was thinking about providing the best and most diverse service to Cox viewers. At the time I made the request, I didn't know which group would get to be the "TV group." It is possible that the schedule is based on considerations other than who sits at the table. And, after all, the KPBS audience gets to hear all editors. So once we alert Cox to the limitations of an alternate week schedule, I think we should step back, leave it to them, and not request any explanation of their motivation. What purpose would that serve?

I totally agree with Hank. I would like to know whether COX made a deliberate decision to only tape Editors when Tim, Bob and John appear. Maybe it just ended up that way -- and we could just tweak the schedule so all the editors are featured on the TV show.

In any event, the Editors-TV audience has certainly grown since we've been using a variety of editors on the show. And this is because these new editors bring different perspectives and analyses. Many viewers enjoy watching the alternative editors. It would be detrimental to the show if Tim, Bob and John were the only editors featured on the televised program.

Who could we talk to at COX to determine whether they indeed only want shows featuring Tim, Bob and John?

Subject: RE: Editors Roundtable- Final Revised Schedule

Carla,

In looking at the TV schedule for the Editors Roundtable, I've made this observation: Based on the latest TV schedule, our "alternate" editors (not Bob, Tim or John) are only scheduled to be taped for TV on two of the remaining show dates this year. Those dates are 3/17/06 and 6/23/06. I came to this conclusion based on the fact that the "regular" editors are on the show every other week. Bob, Tim and John will be on the show this week, 3/10/06. Is Cox aware of this? If they are aware, was it planned out that way for a reason? Do they prefer the "regular" editors? If they prefer the "regulars," why?

9/6/2007

After talking to Gloria and Ana about this, we wanted to make sure that we aren't unfairly discriminating against the "alternate" editors. While we really like the "regulars," we think that having "alternative" editors like Dave Rolland, Ruben Navarrette Jr., Kent Davy, Tony Perry, Scott Lewis, Andrew Donohue, Alisa Joyce Barba, Michael Smolens, and JW August are important contributors to the show and shouldn't be viewed as less important than the "regulars." We also think it is important to have the other editors on the show because they express different views from the regular group. Also, many of the people I just listed have become more well known and possibly more respected over the last few years at least in part because of their participation on this show.

We just want to make sure that the "alternate" editors aren't being left out on purpose. We would like to encourage Cox to think about including the "alternate" editors in a few more of the TV tapings. We think it would be a mistake to only feature the "regular" editors on TV because we would only be giving the viewers half of this great show.

Gloria, Sarah, Ana, or Doug do you have anything to add to that?

Carla,
As per our discussion Editors Roundtable is the exception to the rule regarding format because the total running time is 47:00. Since the show is less than 58:30 we have time for our end break and that is the goal. As for the duration of the first segment, I know that is not possible due to the format for radio. Thanks for your flexibility and assistance!

Hi Deborah,
Please give me a call this week when you get a chance. I have some questions regarding the changes below and I'll be away next week and the following week before our next show on 4/21.
This is going to be really hard for us to do since our show is live on the Radio and runs from 9:06am-9:57am. I'll look into the possibility of reducing the second break from 2 minutes to 1:02. I think we'll be able to accommodate that change. I was wondering if the PBS Promo's we include can count as part of the program or if they count as part of the break? What about the Tease/Promo for the show... can that count as part of the program TRT? Just trying to figure out how to extend the TRT of the show with out you having to extend the break times.

Until now we've had a 3:30 break at 1 & 3 and a 2:00 break at Break #2.
Please let me know if you have any suggestions and give me a call to discuss.
Thank you,
Carla

Subject: Channel 4 Format Change

Importance: High

Hello All,

Channel 4 is undergoing a change regarding the formats for all shows. All shows, effective immediately, need to have a total running time of either 28:30 or 58:30. The time in the end allows for a break that has been created for Channel 4 promotional content, station identification and additional spots. It is our hope that the promos will help with the effort of increasing viewership. I am sending a sample rundown sheet so you will know what we would like to see when you send us your formats via e-mail or with your tapes. The primary change is that on your format sheet you need to include a final break (it is listed as #4 here) so our traffic department will know to generate the break.

Segment A (at least 8 minutes in length)

Break 1 1:32

Segment B

Break 2 1:02

Segment C

Break 3 1:32

Segment D

Break 4 1:02 (this is an end break that hits after the show credits, prior to the next show)

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks for your cooperation on this.

Hi Deborah-

I just heard that Gloria will probably not be hosting the show tomorrow morning since her mother has taken ill. The show's Producer is working on a fill-in host right now and it will most likely be Dwane Brown from the KPBS newsroom.

The editors for tomorrow will be:

Bob Kittle, Editor of the San Diego Union-Tribune Editorial Page

Andrew Donohue, Co-executive Editor for the Voice of San Diego.org (they want us to mention the ".org" now)

Carl Larsen, Editor of the San Diego Union-Tribune Home Section

They will be making a final decision on the topics later this morning. I will give you that info as soon as possible.

Thank you.

Hi Deborah-

We have not had a written agreement in several years so I guess you are not locked into anything. We used to provide 30 shows per calendar year and so that has continued to be our goal. So if you'd like to reschedule these cancellation dates to later in the year that would be appreciated. I'll check with Tom Karlo and Doug Myrland here to see if they had any verbal agreements with your management while they were discussing the written agreement a few years back.

Thank you for the notice. I'll go ahead and cancel these 2 dates for TV production.

-Carla

P.S.- Incase we haven't told you yet, Fabiola Franco, is no longer with KPBS. If you ever need to get hold of someone here right away and don't reach me, you can contact, Ena Newell, my new supervisor (619) 594-5636.

When we received Editors Roundtable for this week there weren't any closed captions... could you tell me what happened? It is required that we air all of our programming with captions to avoid a possible FCC fine. Please let me know and tell me how this can be avoided in the future. Thanks!

Hi Deborah-

We just ran into a scheduling conflict with the October 12th tape date for Editors Roundtable. Our radio program is being reformatted for on-air pledge that day, creating less time for the actual ERT segments. It would likely be appropriate for us to cancel the Oct 12th tape date.

Let me know if you would like us to eliminate that date and reschedule it.

I apologize for the changes.

Subject: NEW - Editors Date Change

Hi Deborah-

We just ran into a scheduling conflict with the October 12th tape date for Editors Roundtable. Our radio program is being reformatted for on-air pledge that day, creating less time for the actual ERT segments. It would likely be appropriate for us to cancel the Oct 12th tape date.

Let me know if you would like us to eliminate that date and reschedule it.

I apologize for the changes.

Best,
Shawn
